

NEW SHOW:

THE SPLENDID THINGS SHOW

Local improv comedy powerhouse Splendid Things returns to the Bryant-Lake Bowl with a simple premise – one stage, two excellent improv groups, adding up to the best night of improvisational comedy the Twin Cities have to offer.

Splendid Things will bring their unique brand of theatrical intensity, movie geekery, and creepy absurdism to the Bryant-Lake Bowl every week for an unscripted comedy set. They'll be joined each time out by a different improv group, (including local favorites Five Man Job, Ferrari McSpeedy and The Mustache Rangers,) resulting in a comedy double bill of epic proportions.

WHERE: Bryant-Lake Bowl
810 West Lake Street

ABOUT SPLENDID THINGS:

Splendid Things brings together three of the Twin Cities' top improvisers to create comedy with emotional intensity, intelligence and a distinctively theatrical style. They mix grounded, naturalistic scenework with dark absurdism for an improv show that manages to be sober and ridiculous at once. The group's members have performed together in various capacities over the years, but Splendid Things marks the first time that all three have joined forces. Splendid Things is Eric Knobel, Hannah Kuhlmann and Michael Ritchie... can you believe it?
